Here are the ways you can get help from and work with B4G:

1. Get Community Organizing, Legal, and Housing Resources:

If you are a Brooklyn tenant, homeowner, or small business owner who is experiencing harassment or need housing, legal, or organizing resources, contact us at:

- ★ In English: B4G@equalityforflatbush.org or call/text (646) 820-6039

2. Become a #NOEVICTIONZONE Leader: Meet with a B4G organizer to create a strategy for organizing your building, block, or neighborhood to stop tenant harassment, greedy developers, and displacement.

3. Put Greedy Landlords & Developers on Blast on Social Media:

Our hashtag #MyNYCLandlord features videos and photos exposing tenant harassment and repairs. We can also issue national direct action alerts asking people to make complaints to 311 and/or your landlord until the repairs are done or the harassment ends.

4. Let's Tell Your Story: Our Tenant Harassment Documentation Team

will come to your building or home and take audio testimonies, videos and/or photos to create an anti-gentrification Public Service Announcement (PSA). Let's document your story and bring media attention to it. Contact: B4GVideo@equalityforflatbush.org

5. Use the B4G website and join our Network: Connect with hundreds of tenants across Brooklyn who want to see an end to tenant harassment and high rents that leads to the displacement of community members. Get involved in social justice activism in your neighborhood.
